

COME, I'VE KILLED MYSELF, HE PHONES TO HOSPITAL

Doctors Find Sleep-Walker's 15-Foot Tumble Only Scratched Him
—Ats Lobster Last Night.

Harry Glaser, thirty-three, of 27a, St.
James place, Brooklyn, ate lobster the supper and early to-day tried to sleep in his sleep. He crept out of his window and fell fifteen to the yard.

landing on hands and feet.
The jar awoke him, and not knowing how badly hurt he was he went into the hallway and telephoned the Holy Family Hospital.
"Come quick. I believe I've killed myself." He then gave his address and was waiting for the ambulance when Dr. Cutler arrived. The only injury the doctor could find was a scratch on the knee.
"Gee, I'm glad," said Glaser. "And no more lobster for me, doc."
